

I am requesting the FCC not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. The Indiana law has effectively eliminated the vast majority of unwanted telephone solicitations to my home. I can now actually eat dinner without being interrupted, something that was rare before Indiana's Telephone Privacy law. The law is very effective and popular with the citizens of Indiana. Please do not attempt to preempt my state's law that is working so effectively.